

A 21st century vision

Conference '97

Keynote speakers bring messages of motivation, education

Stephen M. Gower

Stephen M. Gower is recognized across the nation as a specialist in management by encouragement and in the development of communication skills for leadership! His power-packed presentations have impacted audiences across the country. As founding president of The Gower Group, Inc., Gower has sculpted a human resource development company that is known for high-energy speeches and effective seminars.

Gower will serve as keynote speaker for the First General Session and will address the Commission on Administration as well as the joint meeting of the Deans of Students Association, Instructional Officers Association and Financial Management interest group.

Dr. Jacquelyn M. Belcher

Dr. Jacquelyn M. Belcher, president of DeKalb College since 1995, brings to the lecture a strong educational background including a bachelor's degree from Marymount College, a master's degree and post-graduate work from the University of Washington, Seattle, a juris doctor degree from the University of Puget Sound, and studies with the Institute for the Management of Lifelong Education at Harvard University, the Graduate School of Education at Cambridge, Mass., and the Executive Leadership Institute, League for Innovation, Mesa, Calif.

Dr. Belcher will serve as keynote speaker for the Second General Session.

Commission speakers target interests of college system employees

Dr. Belle Wheelan

The first African-American at Trinity University to be named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Dr. Wheelan was named president of Central Virginia Community College in 1992. She earned a Ph.D. in educational administration in 1984.

Dr. Doris Vaughn

Vaughn has secured a five-year, $2.3 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education to operate an Educational Opportunity Centers Program with offices in Montgomery, Mobile, and Birmingham. She holds a doctorate from Texas Tech University.

Gertrude Baker

Baker is the director of Head Start for Mobile Community Action Agency, Inc. She has previously served in the Mobile County Schools as a principal as well as in several other capacities. She holds A.A. certification from Alabama State University.

Johnson

Congratulations to Cassius Johnson, Beville State Community College - Hamilton Campus. Johnson was elected by the 3500+ delegates at the Phi Theta Kappa International Convention in Dallas, Texas, to serve Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society as International President. Phi Theta Kappa's membership includes more than 70,000 active members at more than 1200 community colleges in all 50 states, Canada and U.S. Territories abroad. At 18, Johnson is the youngest person to have been elected to this prestigious office. Johnson has represented Alabama in an exemplary manner as International President. "In my opinion, Cassius Johnson is the strongest International President I have had the opportunity to know," said Rod Risley, executive director. "He is admired and highly respected by the Headquarters staff, the advisors, his fellow officers and the Society Members."
